From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 11—Judge Reardon this morning discharged Cardinell who was charged with tampering with a juror in the Fair case, he having previously testified, [illegible] fully contradicting the evidence of Santiff the juror in regard to the alleged conversation.

The whole morning has been exhausted in the [illegible] Court without obtaining a second juror in the Fair case. About 600 jurors have already been examined and only one juror accepted. There is much comment in public and it is generally conceded that the chances of obtaining a jury are so slight as to render her ultimate discharge without trial almost a matter of certainty.

In the Municipal Court David Mendel is on trial on a charge of felony by appropriating funds collected for other parties.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 11—Ex Supervisor Kelley was arrested to-day on the charge of conspiracy to murder J B Shay the main witness in the real estate title forgery cases now pending in the Municipal Court and his bail fixed at $5 000. A Mexican printer states that Kelly and Deardorff hired him to go to Oakland and hire another Mexican for a thousand dollars to murder Shay, rob him and cut off one of his ears as proof of his committal of the murder. He shows a pistol which he says was given him to be used in the commission of the murder and claims that they paid him fifty dollars in advance. Deardorff has not yet been arrested, but the police are hunting for him.

The Secretary of the Treasury has remitted the 10 per cent discriminating duty on goods imported in Japanese vessels in the case of the ship Ju J Maru which arrived last week.

Six hundred and eighty persons have been examined in the Fair case and only one juror yet obtained.

The following is the full text of Judge Reardon's remarks in the matter of alleged tampering with a juror in the Fair case by John A Cardinell: In the course of the examination on oath of Santiff one of the jurors in this case Monday the statement was made by him that you attempted to bribe him. The charge is very grave and serious and if true would call for a severe punishment. I issued an order for you to appear and show cause why you should not be punished for contempt. You appeared. After Santiff gave his testimony you testified and introduced witnesses. The testimony was very conflicting and I found it impossible to reconcile that given by Santiff and yourself and witnesses. Under the testimony I can not say you are guilty of the act charged against you and yet your conduct is not free from suspicion. The conversation which you admit having had with Santiff after you knew he was a juror or might be one was improper. You seem to be a man of intelligence and to be somewhat familiar with proceedings in courts of justice and must know that you had no right to make the remarks which you admit. Your expressed satisfaction at the fact that he was to serve on the jury for you wanted Mrs Fair to be cleared. No matter how you may sympathize with any defendant it is not right to talk to a juror in the way you admit having done in this instance. I cannot say you are guilty of the main charge but your conduct in the other respect may be the subject of further action. You are discharged from further attendance. It is understood the case will go before the Grand Jury.

It is believed generally among lawyers that it will be found impossible to obtain a jury in the Fair case at this term; that she will not renew the motion for a change of venue but at next term will demand an immediate trial or release; that the District Attorney will then declare himself unable to go into a new trial immediately and a special act of the Legislature will then be called for to give a change of venue on behalf of the people.

The general condition of the stock market is much improved.

Steamer Idaho for Honolulu sailed at noon with over fifty passengers, mostly for Australia.

The funeral ceremonies in honor of the memory of Benito Juarez late President of Mexico, will be held at Dashaway Hall to-morrow evening.

No news yet of the Panama or Honolulu steamers.

The Idaho for Honolulu with Australian mails, will sail at 12 M promptly, to-day not waiting for the arrival of the other steamers.

The police find nothing corroborative of the story of the shooting of a highwayman on Second street by James Laven of the Union Pacific Telegraph Office Sacramento and are rather inclined to doubt a part of it.

The Board of Regents of the State University met this afternoon and reported a Committee to arrange with the Masonic Order for laying the corner stone of the University building.

This afternoon the feet of a man were seen projecting from under a small frame building on the corner of King and Seventh streets. Upon investigation it was found that a stranger had crawled under the building and cut his throat with a pocket knife probably dying in a few minutes. A knife was found clasped in his hand. The ground was soaked with his blood. He was apparently thirty years of age and was well dressed. Nothing was found in his pockets but a few pieces of cracker. He had light hair and mustache blue eyes and about five feet nine inches in height.

The remains of a man so far gone in consumption as to be hardly recognizable was found in the bay to-day.

Two more jurors have been accepted in the Fair case viz Kern Kinney and W J Sherwood.

VICTORIA, Sept 10—The Port Townsend Argus contains the following from a letter received by a gentleman from Mr Allen Francis dated on board steamer [illegible] at Sitka August 13th: We learn that the steamer Rose had just made her escape from across the sound the boat having been captured by the Indians and all hands held as hostages to compel the authorities to indemnify them for an Indian woman and man shot by the soldiers at Sitka during a difficulty some time ago. The steamer made her escape in the night. The Rose was waiting for goods from Portland, and for a new propeller.

The Hudson Bay Co secure all the finest furs from Alaska by means of native agents to whom the Company furnish blankets etc and get in return the pick of the market.

POLITICAL NOTES

The following are the nominees of the Republican party of California in the several districts for Congressmen: 1st district, Charles Clayton of San Francisco; 2d, H F Page of Eldorado; 3d, John M Coghlan, of Solano; 4th, S O Houghton, of Santa Clara.

The New Orleans Picayune says: "Now all ye dead Democrats come out of that last ditch and show that ye are all good yet for a little old Bourbon." The appeal is an appropriate one. If anything could revive dead Democrats, it would be Old Bourbon.

Alabama advices show that the Republicans have entered upon the State canvass with great energy. Senator Spencer says the ticket is the strongest ever put in the field, and that it cannot be beaten. He thinks Grant is good for 10 000 majority in November.

Since the nomination of General Dix for Governor by the Republicans of New York, Mr Greeley's friends are very fearful that New York State will go against them. It would be carrying the war into Africa to whip the old Philosopher in his own State but stranger things have happened.

Carl Schurz once made a speech at Fort Wayne Ind, on which occasion he was pelted with cabbage heads. Stooping down he picked up one of the heads hurled at him, and, holding it in his hand said: "Those of my countrymen who vote with the Democratic party have no more intelligence than that cabbage head."

Greeley confesses to being picked with Nast's pencil. He said in a speech at Augusta, Maine: "Notwithstanding the caricatures with which you have been abundantly inundated, you find that I still preserve something of the human form." Can any one fancy Gen Grant whining in this way about the caricatures of him by Matt Morgan?

When Greeley wrote his "American Conflict" he said that General Dix's order "If any man attempts to haul down the American flag, shoot him on the spot" sent an electric thrill through the loyal heart of the country. Greeley had forgotten for the moment that at the same time his language was discouraging the loyal heart and aiding the rebels to fire the South.

A special to the N Y Times says Governor Curtin has avowed himself in favor of the reelection of General Grant. He will make speeches supporting Grant and Wilson during the campaign. He complains of the manner in which Senator Cameron is allowed to control the patronage of Pennsylvania, which is the sum of his fault finding against the administration.

Horace Greeley is commended largely as one of the "self-made men." Was much known of General Grant until he made himself known by his deed, not words, and does history show a brighter instance of one who was revealed to a nation by achievements of which he has never been known to boast? Did patronage carry him from Galena to Vicksburg, or from Vicksburg to Appomattox? Did he seek command and the Presidency or did they seek him? Shall modesty or conceit win the day?

The London Railway News says that the amount of British capital applied for in London by Americans during the year 1871 was $325 918 000, showing the magnitude of transactions of this kind between the two countries. The amount of British capital invested in United States mining property alone is very large.

An Otsego county justice a short time since so far forgot the dignity of his office as to get drunk. When he became sober he arraigned himself before himself, reprimanded the prisoner severely for his disgraceful conduct and compelled him to pay a fine of $10 or be imprisoned for thirty days. The "prisoner" paid the fine to the justice who in turn handed it to the poormaster.

The Navy Department has a letter from Captain Hall of the Arctic exploring expedition which shows that reports of disasters having happened him are entirely untrue. He is making his way steadily onward and is thoroughly prepared for the coming Arctic winter. He had changed his route but was confident of making very considerable progress toward the North Pole before the winter set in.

[illegible] AS SHEEP—The St Louis Democrat has the following:

Thirty or forty sheep were being driven down Walnut street yesterday noon when the leader, a sagacious looking ram, saw his reflection in one of the large plate glass windows at Milo G Dodd & Co's store No 409 Walnut street. Without an instant's hesitation the old fellow lowered his head and started for the glass full tilt. Just as he reached it he gave a tremendous jump evidently expecting to meet a lively resistance. His expectations were dashed as was the glass, it being smashed to atoms while the ram started on a run towards the back part of the store. The drove seeing the leader disappearing, immediately followed in his wake and the entire number jumped through the window and very nearly knocked down and trampled upon two or three of the employes. Amazed at the sudden and startling attack, they fled from the store leaving the drove in full possession. Several of the sheep were badly cut by broken glass from the window and an overturned and broken show case, gave the place the appearance of being a total wreck. It was nearly an hour before the sheep could be driven out and order again restored.

The internal revenue department will enforce the law relative to the stamps to be used upon packages containing less than a barrel of beer, recommending the brewers who affix half barrel stamps to one third barrels to apply to Congress to refund upon proof of any tax paid in excess of the demands of the law. The only place in the country where the strict enforcement of the law really works hardship is in the mining districts of the Pacific States, where the beer is packed on mules in one-third barrels.

Extracts from the report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War show very clearly why Gen Banks can not support Grant. The latter conducted the war upon war principles, and he had a very decided opinion, which he expressed frequently in his official correspondence that Banks was a hopeless failure. Gen Sherman also arrived at the same conclusion. This created a "chasm" over which it could hardly be expected Gen. Banks would shake hands.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN CONVENTION AT PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 6, 1872.

The Republican Party of the United States assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872 again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country:

1 During the eleven years of its ascendancy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity, it criminally punished no man for political offenses and has warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It initiated a new policy toward the Indians; the Pacific Railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted to completion. The public lands have been freely given to actual settlers. Immigration has been protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the rights of naturalized citizens secured from European powers. In the form of National currency it has provided for the National credit, and sustained it under the most extraordinary burdens. It has negotiated new bonds at lower rates of interest. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reductions from the rate of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during U S Grant's Presidency at the rate of $100 000,000 per year. A great financial crisis has been averted and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the Nation kept in a high position throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future, and we believe that the people will not entrust the government to any party or combination of men, or [illegible] of those who chiefly have resisted every step in this beneficial progress.

2 Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race, creed, color or previous condition of servitude.

3 The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured the amendments.

4 The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations protecting its citizens everywhere and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5 Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by a law which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position without practically creating a life tenure of office.

6 We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolists and demand that the National domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

7 The annual revenue after paying current expenditures, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, be raised by duties on importations which should be adjusted to aid in securing remunerative wages to laborers, and to promote the industries and growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8 We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for the country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged and who in the time of duty became disabled without regard to length of service or the cause of such discharge.

9 The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, once a subject always a subject having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned and the American idea of the right of an individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Government, and we urge a continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration.

10 The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way prepared for reductions in the rates of postage.

11 Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital and for labor which creates capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12 We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13 We denounce the repudiation of public debts, in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment.

14 The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom; their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15 We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16 The Republican party propose to respect all rights reserved by the people to themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments. It disapproves of asserting constitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government.

17 It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship-building.

18 We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U S Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people and with him at our head we start to-day upon a new march to victory.

The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 12, 1872.

NOTICE.

[illegible] THE DAILY and WEEKLY OREGONIAN [illegible] be paid to the undersigned.

HENRY L. PITTOCK.

Portland, Sept. 10, 1872.

With this issue I assume the editorial charge of the DAILY and WEEKLY OREGONIAN. I crave the charitable consideration of the reader.

W. LAIR HILL.

Change of Management.

A change in the proprietorship of the OREGONIAN establishment was followed by the announcement, in yesterday's issue, of the retirement of H. W. Scott, Esq., from the position of Editor-in-Chief of the paper. Mr. Henry L. Pittock has sold the paper to an association formed for the purpose of publishing a Republican newspaper in Portland. All the parties interested in the purchase are men who have never wavered in their support of the principles and candidates of the Republican party. This fact, it is supposed, might be sufficient to indicate what will be the political complexion of this journal in the future. It may not be improper, however, to say that the OREGONIAN will continue to be a Republican paper, and to advocate the cause of the Republican party, in county, State and National politics. We hope to see Grant and Wilson carry Oregon by a majority twice as large as that of the Republican candidate for Congress at the last June election, and to the accomplishment of that end we promise our very best efforts.

We shall endeavor so to conduct the paper in the future that there shall be no cause for any faction of the Republican party—if factions shall arise—to consider this journal as either its ally or its enemy. Believing that principles are greater than men, we shall devote this journal to building up, cementing together and perpetuating the Republican party for the sake of its principles, and shall avoid being drawn into those mere personal contests which involve no vital principle.

It is the right of every member of a party to have and exercise his individual judgment upon such questions as relate simply to the machinery and methods of party work, unless those questions have been settled by the platform of his party, or a long continued and unvaried usage; and in so doing he does not impair his standing in the party, nor justify attacks upon his party fealty. No party organization can be sustained for a long period without conceding thus much to the individual consciences of its members, because freemen cannot be induced wholly to sink their individuality in their party organizations. Holding the complete recognition of this principle to be indispensable to the continued harmony and success of the Republican party, we shall to the best of our humble ability, defend every member of the organization in acting upon it.

To the development of all the material resources of the country, the building of railways and carrying forward of every internal improvement, as well as the encouragement of every measure for increasing the commerce of our State, the OREGONIAN will hereafter, as heretofore, give its hearty and unwavering support.

Next.

The first State election which took place after the Presidential campaign opened was that of North Carolina. Before that event took place we were told by the opposition press that the old North State was to send forth the first note of Democratic victory, which was to be echoed from Vermont and re-echoed from Maine, and be taken up by State after State till the great revolution should be complete, thus turning the surrender of the Democracy to Greeley, into a Bull Run rout of the administration. When North Carolina disappointed them they said that State had been carried by fraud, but Vermont would tell another story. Then came Vermont with increased Republican majorities. And now Maine shows still greater gains. The overwhelming victory which was to be achieved by the fusion of incompatibles is not yet manifest. We await the next echo.

LETTER FROM SALEM.

SALEM, September 11, 1872.

To the Editor of The Oregonian:

The dead lock in the Senate upon the choice of Chief Clerk has made it unnecessary to speak extensively of the proceedings of the Legislature. The House ordered a committee of three of its members to inform his Excellency the Governor that the House was ready to receive any communication which he might be disposed to make them. His Excellency acknowledged service of the notice but had nothing further to say, or at least nothing that concerned the House and didn't concern the Senate. So the House adjourned till to-morrow and many of its members living most convenient to the Capital departed for their respective domicils. It is said however that most of them will be in their seats again to-morrow.

The Senate was easily discouraged this morning. Only three more ballots were taken for Chief Clerk, when an adjournment till to-morrow was carried. This makes sixty ballots, without a change. It is said there will be an election to-morrow, but I am not aware that any person possesses more knowledge on the subject than I do, and I have none whatever.

But you ought to see what a magnificent opportunity this hitch in the organization gives to the lobbyists and logrollers. These are in their glory. They are kind enough to busy themselves constantly and earnestly in laying out work for the members of the Legislature to do when they get the machinery in proper working order. Alas!

OREGON.

The Salem Statesman proclaims the advent of street hoodlums.

The Sentinel says the monte bank in La Grande is broke, and the people are compelled to seek amusement in other ways.

The Willamette University and the Monmouth College both opened last Monday with flattering prospects [illegible] during the fall and winter terms.

Hon. John A. [illegible] recently appointed agent at the [illegible] Indian reservation at Colville, built the first flouring mill at Walla Walla, and also [illegible] the first wheat sown in that valley in [illegible]

The Statesman has the following pun on the dead lock in the State Senate on the election of a Chief Clerk: "The Senate has a little leaven in it, but it don't leaven the whole lump. In short, there are two 'levens in it, and that's what's the matter—they stand each other off."

The hoodlums about La Grande ride Cayuse ponies and go careering through the country, stopping in front of farm houses and using obscene and insulting language to the inmates. A gentleman whose daughter was thrown by her horse becoming frightened by a band of these rascals gives them notice to "go slow."

C. W. Goodwin, of Yakima, W. T., informs the Walla Walla Statesman that the flouring mill at Yakima City is up, and the machinery on the ground. The mill will be ready to commence operations in about three weeks. The crops did not turn out as well this season as was anticipated. The wheat crop is estimated at 25,000 bushels. At Yakima City wheat commands a dollar a bushel; oats and barley are quoted at seventy-five cents a bushel. Beef on foot sells for five to six cents, but with slight demand.

THE TERRITORIES.

Walla Walla valley was visited by an unusually heavy rain fall last week, lasting three days.

On last Monday William Watson was committed to jail in default of two thousand dollars bail for a deadly assault on a Chinaman named Ah Tung in Olympia.

It is rumored that the Union Pacific Railroad Company is negotiating for the control of the Utah Southern, with the intention to push the work to the extreme southern part of Utah.

Charles Overholtzer of Walla Walla was chosen as the best qualified applicant from Washington Territory for the position of a student in the U. S. Naval Academy. There were three applicants.

Kirkland, charged with the murder of Campbell, was brought before Judge Greene at Olympia upon a writ of habeas corpus on the 9th inst., who, after hearing the evidence and argument of counsel, denied the application of petitioners and remanded him to the custody of the Sheriff.

Mrs. S. E. May, of Salt Lake City, in a letter to a lady friend, informs her that at a recent election in Utah Territory, she and Mrs. ex Governor Woods cast their first ballots. Mrs. May expressed herself as highly elated over the circumstance, and proud of the right of suffrage bestowed upon her.

Frank Wadsworth last Friday fell from the railroad bridge on Skookum Chuck, Washington Territory, a distance of fifty feet, breaking one of the bones in his right arm and the bone above the great toe in the right foot. He fell into the water about four feet deep, else, doubtlessly, he would have been killed.

The Chairman of the Washington Territory Democratic Central Committee has called a Convention to assemble on the 1st proximo. A number of leading Democratic politicians of the Territory it is said were opposed to the measure, desiring Judge McFadden to remain in the field and run as an independent candidate.

The following is a summary of the business transacted at the Walla Walla Land Office for the month of August: Six preemption filings for 963 acres; 1,015 acres paid for under homestead and preemption laws; two final homestead certificates issued for 320 acres; seven homestead filings for 843 acres. Total number of acres disposed of, 3,741.

The Walla Walla Real Estate Record says "immigration is still pouring into this portion of the Territory, the great bulk of which goes north of Snake river to settle upon the vacant Government lands in that locality. That region is especially adapted to stock raising; but experience has demonstrated that it is less favorable to grain and fruit growing than some other parts of Washington Territory."

The Walla Walla and Columbia River Railroad Company are at work on their mill and boom at Wallula so as to be ready to get out their ties and stringers as soon as their logs can be driven down the Yakima river, which, however, cannot be done until the water rises in that stream to a considerable extent. Present appearances indicate that the company will not be able to lay the track before next spring.

The Olympia Courier says: "We are informed that the N. P. R. R. Co. have selected a site on section 9, township 15 N., R. 2 west—half a mile south of the crossing of Newaukum river, in Lewis county, for a station and town, to accommodate the Chehalis, Boisfort and Newaukum country. General Tilton is now laying out a town there to be called Newaukum. The company will immediately open roads to connect their new town with the neighboring roads. The company will pursue a liberal policy in order to foster the growth of this place, which is the most important point on the 65 miles of railroad thus far built; will donate two blocks to the county for county buildings, and two blocks for schools, two lots for churches; charge $100 each for lots, and will make a liberal discount to persons making valuable investments."

THE INLAND SEA OF JAPAN.—This Japan, I re-declare, is the most beautiful country in the world—and I have now seen a good part of the world. I have come down through the inland sea by—what shall I say to give an American idea of it? through Lake Champlain, say, through Lake George, the thousand islands of the St. Lawrence, the Rocky Mountain ranges, and the Columbia river in Oregon. Puget Sound in Washington Territory, etc. There is nothing surpasses it, scarcely anything that equals it, in our country. The Scotchman here has his Loch Lomond, or Loch Katrine; the Swiss, his Geneva Lake; the Englishman, Westmoreland; the Irishman, his Killarney. We have been sailing for twenty-four hours, ten miles an hour, through a succession of changeable scenery, an idea of which you can only have by bearing in mind the beautiful home spots I have named. The hills are covered to the very tops with the liveliest green, or these hills are terraced generally with garden-spots, one overhang the other. Along many of the hills and on the very summits, are strings of lofty trees, so trained as to make a seeming continuous march of forest to forest over every hill-top.—Brooks' "Seven Months' Run."

Private letters from North Carolina state, in reference to the frauds which are so generally charged by Liberal papers, that an examination shows that in the very counties in which the vote is declared in excess of the legitimate number of voters the Democrats made their largest gains, while the Republicans have merely held their vote of 1868. An instance of this kind of fraud occurred in Halifax county, in which the Democratic majority was largely increased, the Republican vote continuing at nearly its previous figures, this being one of the counties in which the Liberals claim the largest frauds on account of the impossibly large number of votes polled.

An exchange says: Chinese fire-proof cellars proved their excellency in a late fire at Virginia City. The Virginia Enterprise says, "In no one of these Chinese cellars was there done the slightest damage, and in them the owners of the stores above saved most of their goods."

An inclined railway over which cars are to ascend and descend by steel wire ropes and stationary engines, is to be constructed just outside San Francisco. The incline will be 2,800 feet in length, and at the top the cars are to be delivered over to a horse railway.

The tobacco crop of Missouri for this year is estimated at 33,000 hogsheads.

OREGON LEGISLATURE.

Seventh Biennial Session.

Senate.

MORNING SESSION.

SALEM, Sept. 11.

Met at [illegible] o'clock—members all present.

Mr. Baldwin, of Grant, moved that Messrs. [illegible] Wasco, and Williams, of Benton, contestants for seats be allowed seats within the bar.

The motion was [illegible] and the gentlemen were [illegible] by the sergeant at arms.

The [illegible] was then called for the fifty-ninth ballot for Chief Clerk, which resulted as before [illegible] After a half hour's recess it was moved to the sixtieth ballot [illegible] with the same result [illegible] the Senate adjourned to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

House.

MORNING SESSION.

Met at 10 o'clock. Session opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Henderson.

Leave of absence was granted yesterday to Mr. Washburn, of Lane county, until Monday, and to-day, on motion to Mr. Willoughby, of Linn county, for Thursday and Friday.

The dead lock in the Senate continuing, the House was prevented from indulging in anything but formalities, and even these were interfered with.

Mr. Simpson inquired whether the contestants for the seats for Clackamas county had, in compliance with the report adopted, been invited to seats within the bar. There seemed to be some misunderstanding on the point, and he should like to know what were the privileges of the contestants.

Mr. Speaker said he was not in the chair at the time the resolution was adopted. If the invitation was not formally conveyed to them it should have been. To more than the privilege of those seats they were not now entitled.

Mr. Burbank who had acted as temporary Chairman when the motion was adopted, said he understood the contestants for the Clackamas seats were present at that stage of the proceedings, and he had not therefore thought it necessary to convey any formal invitation to them.

Mr. Simpson also asked whether it was not within the province of the House to transact certain business without the co-operation of the Senate.

Mr. Speaker said they could transact such business as was peculiar to the House, but it would not be proper for them to do anything in which the Senate was also concerned.

Mr. Caples then moved that it be resolved by the House that there be appointed a committee of three, whose duty it shall be to wait upon the Governor and inform him that this House is now organized and ready to receive any communications which he may be pleased to make.

The motion was seconded and carried.

Mr. Simpson said he had not understood the motion at first, and had therefore failed to object to it at the proper time. He should like to ask now whether it was in order for them to wait upon the Governor before the Senate was organized?

Mr. Speaker—We have a right to inform the Governor that we are organized, and that if we can't proceed to business it is not our fault. There can be no question of order in this. There may be a question of propriety. But the proceeding is quite legitimate.

Mr. Caples—I introduced the resolution for this reason. The Governor is not presumed to know what this House is doing until he is properly informed, and I think it only a matter of courtesy that, as we have notified the Senate that we are organized, we should also notify the Governor. The Governor, in all likelihood, may have some especial communication for this House in which the Senate is not interested.

Mr. Simpson—But has the Senate been informed that this House is organized?

Mr. Speaker—There was a resolution passed with that object.

Mr. Simpson—Has it been received in the Senate?

Mr. Speaker—I think the Senate had sufficient organization at the time to receive such a communication.

The Speaker announced that Messrs. Caples, Longell and Curran would wait upon the Governor in accordance with the resolution. The House then adjourned until three o'clock this afternoon.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

On the House resuming at 3 o'clock, Mr. Caples reported that the committee appointed to wait upon the Governor and inform him the House was now organized, had in person informed His Excellency of the organization of the House and its readiness to receive any communication from him. Report received and committee discharged.

Committee on Rules submitted a report recommending the adoption of the rules of 1868, with rule 43 as amended by the session of 1870. Adopted and committee discharged.

Adjourned till 10 A. M. to-morrow.

Reasons for Not Supporting Greeley.

We are requested to publish the following fifteen reasons for not supporting Greeley, by a Democrat of this section who cannot "swallow" the Tribune philosopher as a candidate for the Presidency. The reasons are such as must naturally present themselves to the honest and independent elector, who desires to cast his ballot in such a manner that it shall conduce to the best interests of the country. Here they are:

1. Because he was an original secessionist. In 1860 he advocated the right of the "cotton" States to withdraw from the Union, if a majority of their people should so vote, and announced that he would oppose all efforts to "coerce" those States into remaining in the Union.

2. Because he was faint-hearted during the war, and, when our cause looked dark, brought to bear the powerful influence of his press in favor of making "terms" with the rebels upon such conditions as they might be willing to accede to.

3. Because the newspaper which he controlled goaded the administration into making a premature "On to Richmond" movement, thereby entailing upon the Union cause disaster and defeat, and bringing about the sacrifice of thousands of lives needlessly.

4. Because he besieged President Lincoln, who was kindly disposed towards him, to permit him to "negotiate" with certain prominent rebels in 1863, to the end that peace might be brought about at the expense of a disrupted Union.

5. Because he advocated the payment of four hundred millions of dollars out of the national treasury, to be raised by taxation upon the loyal people of the North, in payment for the slaves set free by President Lincoln's famous emancipation proclamation.

6. Because, just before the victories at Gettysburg and Vicksburg in 1863, he advocated making peace with the rebels, in case we should be defeated in the then ensuing campaigns, upon such terms as we could obtain, even though those terms involved a recognition of the independence of the Confederate States.

7. Because he was blood-thirsty after the close of the war, and demanded not only the heads of the principal Confederate leaders, but the confiscation of the property of all who had participated in the rebellion.

8. Because he has been during his whole life time an active, bigoted partisan, denouncing in unmeasured terms all who have had the hardihood to oppose him.

9. Because he has foully traduced the respectable element of the Democratic party, by denominating them as the companions and associates of horse thieves.

10. Because he has been a bigoted advocate of the theory of "protection," and has thereby endeavored to take money out of the pockets of the consumer, for the benefit of those of the producing manufacturer.

11. Because he supported President Grant as long as he thought he could influence him, and only began to oppose him when he found that General Grant would not listen to his counsels.

12. Because he signed the bail bonds of Jefferson Davis, the man at whose instigation and by whose order our prisoners from the Union army suffered untold privations at Andersonville, Macon, and in Libby prison.

13. Because he wrote letters only six month ago, "pledging himself to support the Republican ticket whether he liked the way it was made up or not."

14. Because he is surrounded by the worst knot of politicians in the United States, who gain his confidence by flattery and fawning, and who, in the event of his election, will constitute a "ring" more odious than any heretofore known in our politics.

15. Because he is without experience in public affairs; easily imposed upon; puffed up by the idea that he is the greatest character of the century, and because he has deliberately abandoned life-long friends to make his bed with political enemies.

We challenge any "Liberal," or any Greeley Democrat, to review our presentation of the case against Mr. Greeley, and to show that a single one of the points which we make are without foundation.—Albany Express.

Accounts from Galveston, Texas, August 19th, state that the cotton picking was then general, and the receipts at Galveston are approaching one hundred bales a day, and it is estimated that they will amount to three thousand bales during the present month, and from twenty-five to thirty thousand bales in September, against fourteen thousand in September last year. The reports continue generally favorable, and the plant is almost everywhere said to be in fine condition, well formed and bolled. The worm has made its appearance in several counties, but has nowhere done any damage of consequence except in Liberty and Polk counties. From all other parts of the State the news is very cheering.

TOBACCO STATISTICS.—The present annual production of tobacco has been estimated by an eminent English writer at 4,000,000,000 pounds! Suppose it all made into cigars, one hundred to the pound, it would produce 400,000,000,000. Four hundred billions of cigars! Allowing this tobacco, unmanufactured, to cost, on the average, ten cents a pound, we have $400,000,000 expended every year in producing a noxious, deleterious weed. At least one and a half times as much more is required to manufacture it into a marketable form and dispose of it to the consumer. If this be so, then the human family expend, every year, one thousand millions of dollars in the gratification of an acquired habit, or one dollar for every man, woman and child upon the earth!

This sum would build two railroads around the earth, at a cost of twenty thousand dollars per mile, or sixteen railroads from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It would build one hundred thousand churches, costing $10,000 each, or one million of dwellings, costing $1,000 each. It would employ one million of preachers and one million of teachers, giving each a salary of $500. It would support three and one-third millions of young men at college, giving each $300 per annum for expenses.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company reports that the through passenger travel on that railroad in July was as follows: To the East, 1,885; to the West, 2,932; total, 4,817. In the corresponding months last year there were 2,567 arrivals and 1,925 departures by the same route, against 2,508 arrivals and 2,501 departures in the same month in 1870. The passenger arrivals in San Francisco by way of the ocean during the month of July numbered 3,317.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial telegraphs that the joint debate in the Fourth Indiana District, between Wilson (Rep.) and Gooding (Dem.), has resulted disastrously to the latter. The same correspondent says the Republican cause is growing stronger daily in Indiana. This is good news, and it is all the more welcome because it comes through a Greeley organ.

The Greeleyites sought to strengthen their cause by hinting that Greeley, if elected, would appoint Charles Francis Adams Secretary of State. Now comes the report that Adams is opposed to Greeley, and favors the reelection of Grant. This news is not surprising. It could not be expected that a man of Adams' character would identify himself with that crowd.

The State of Missouri has increased over 100,000 by immigration since the war closed; while immigrants are pouring into Kansas at the rate of about 125,000 persons a year. This is what comes of cheap lands, cheap living, cheap freights, and the absence of monopolies.

An Iowa woman has great faith in life insurance. By its agency she has realized $50,000 off of two husbands, and not very good husbands either.

Fifty-two pounds of Howbray's tri-nitro-glycerine threw out 3,000 tons of limestone at the Sing Sing quarry recently at one blast.

CITY.

THE WATER QUESTION.—By reference to the proceedings of the Common Council at the meeting of that body last night it will be seen that a special meeting will be held on next Saturday evening for the purpose of receiving the report of the special committee on water supplies. This committee was appointed some time ago and was instructed to make inquiries in regard to and report upon the cost and most economical method of supplying the city with water, taking into consideration the source of supply, the quality of water, the cost of creating works and maintaining the same. This committee has thoroughly investigated these questions and has prepared a voluminous and exhaustive report on the subject which will be submitted to the Council on Saturday evening. Those who desire to know the views of the committee upon this question which is one of much importance will probably attend the meeting.

AT SALEM.—Manager Waldron has leased Reed's Opera House at Salem and will open a short theatrical season there with his present company, next Monday evening. The season will continue through the remainder of the Legislative session and until the end of the State Fair. "Macbeth" will be the opening piece next Monday. Mr Waldron has one of the best theatrical troupes on the coast. We can heartily recommend them to the kind appreciation and liberal patronage of the citizens of Salem.

THROWN OFF.—A farmer residing several miles from the city while engaged in hauling wood a few days since met with a severe accident. He had loaded his wagon, and as he was endeavoring to climb up, the team suddenly started. He was thrown forward under the horses' feet. The wagon passed over him, one of the wheels crossing his left leg. Fortunately the limb was not broken but was badly bruised, so that the man has not been able to leave his house since the accident.

FOURTH STREET.—This street now presents an animated appearance. Piles of lumber are scattered along at intervals and the grading is being pushed as rapidly ahead as possible. As rapidly as the street is brought to the established grade, planking will follow. At the present rate at which the work is moving on, the street will be completed by the first of next month.

FINED.—The two women who engaged in a "personal rencountre" Tuesday evening, were up before Judge Denny yesterday. Both pleaded not guilty to the charges, but from the evidence their guilt appeared patent to the Court. He fined each $5 and costs, and being unable to pay, they were committed for three days.

TO BE BURIED.—The remains of the late W D Wantiss, for a long time a merchant in Idaho City, who died last year, arrived here Tuesday evening and were interred last evening in Hussalo Cemetery. The remains were brought here by Mr T. T Redsull, and found a last resting place in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery.

BENEFIT.—A ball, festival and concert conjointly will be given at Oregon City this evening for the benefit of J. M. Bacon, who was robbed of about one thousand dollars a few weeks ago. The entertainment will be interesting and the object laudable, so that the occasion will meet no doubt with a deserved patronage.

DETAINED.—Yesterday, as the ferry boat was crossing the river opposite Stark street, she collided with a large sand barge which was descending the stream. Fortunately no damage was sustained by either craft, and no inconvenience attended the occurrence, except a delay of nearly half an hour.

READY TO TOW.—The tug boat Maria Wilkins received her papers from the Custom House yesterday, and is now ready to receive orders and take contracts of towing and removing of vessels, rafts, barges and scows. She will proceed down the river on Sunday for a raft of timber to bring to the city.

WARM.—The thermometer was waltzing into the eighties yesterday. The day was oppressively ..., considering that it came on suddenly at ... of a cold pleasant spell of weather. These ... are refreshing, but a few more days such ... yesterday will re-inaugurate the season for ...

SPECIALLY INVITED.—Mr Robert Holman, ex-Chief Engineer of the Portland Fire Department, received a dispatch yesterday from the Chief and Assistant Engineer of the Albany Fire Department cordially inviting him to be present at the firemen's reunion to be held at that place to day.

APPROACHING COMPLETION.—The brick work on the new gas tank at the corner of Sixth and F streets, is rapidly approaching completion. The masonry work will be completed long before the tank will be ready to erect. The masonry materials are soon expected to arrive.

FIREMEN—EXCURSION.—The members of Willamette Engine Co No 1, accompanied by the Chief Engineer and invited guests, will pay a visit to Albany to day, in response to an invitation tendered them by the Fire Department at that place.

CONVALESCING.—Brady, the man who was seriously injured while attempting to get on a passing train last Sunday afternoon, is recovering as rapidly as could be expected under the circumstances. He will soon be able to resume work.

LUMBER.—Notwithstanding the fact that the mills of the city are running almost night and day, they are unable to supply the demand. Large quantities of lumber are arriving every few days from some point down the river.

OVERBOARD.—A small lad, while engaged in fishing from a wharf last evening, lost his footing and fell backwards into the water. He was drawn out after a thorough ducking and a narrow escape.

"ORPHEUS."—The Orpheus, a repository of Music, Art and Literature, for August, is laid on our table. This excellent monthly contains its usual complement of choice literary and musical selections.

OREPLANUS.—This steamer arrived at port last evening, bringing ninety one cabin and forty six steerage passengers, and eighty three United States troops, besides a full freight.

LOW WATER.—The Wallamet at this point is getting very low. A few more feet and the low water mark will be reached. The Columbia has almost reached its lowest stage.

ILL.—We regret to announce that E D Baker, City Treasurer, is now suffering from an attack of illness, and will probably not be able to resume work for several days.

FOUND.—A large bow was dropped on First street between Alder and Washington last evening. The owner can have the same by calling at this office and proving property.

STILL IN SESSION.—The Board of Equalization is still in session and will probably consume the most of the present week in the examination and equalization of the tax rolls.

SURVEYING.—A party of surveyors are now engaged in running the preliminary lines on the north side of the Columbia river for the Northern Pacific Railroad Company.

RESIGNED.—We learn that Hon J N Dolph has resigned his position as a member of the Board of Directors of the School District comprising this city.

MORE CHINAMEN.—The steamer ... brought up yesterday from Kalama three hundred more Chinamen discharged from work on the N P R R.

TO LOAD.—The bark ... was towed last Tuesday morning down to the ... saw mill, where she will receive a cargo of lumber for Hong Kong.

FESTIVAL.—The ladies of the First A M E Zion Church will hold a festival this Thursday evening, to which the public are cordially invited.

NONE OFF.—At the latest accounts no vessels were seen off the bar, although several are now due at this port.

AMUSEMENTS.

Vivian and his troupe gave entertainments at Walla Walla Monday and Tuesday evenings.

The Crystal Palace Circus was performing at Victoria at last accounts, to good houses.

The Theater Comique will be opened on Saturday evening under the management of N Hookgurtel. A large company arrived on the last steamer and will appear on the evening in question.

A very respectable audience was present last evening at Oro Fino Theater. The splendid drama of the "Lion of St Marc" was rendered with fine effect by the talented company. Mr Waldron assumed the character of "Osceola," Mr Pulford that of "Galeona," Mrs C F Stewart "Lesbia," Mrs Waldron "Viola." The entire strength of the company was included in the remainder of the cast. The piece was produced with all the additions of scenery, elegant costumes and mechanical effect. A more artistic rendition of a play put on the stage in better style has scarcely ever been produced here. This same splendid drama will be offered again this evening.

NO LICENSE.—A Chinaman was arrested last evening by Officer Kelley for peddling without a license. He was lodged in jail until this morning, when the case will be examined into before Judge Denny.

AROUND AGAIN.—Capt J R Wiley, of the Police force, who has been sick for some days, is able to be around again. He will soon resume his duties.

The barge Lewis ... arrived from Beaver Creek Tuesday evening with 47,000 feet of cedar lumber. She was towed up by the tug boat Wasp.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamer Oriflamme, which arrived here last evening will sail for San Francisco on Saturday next.

Avoid the Perils of the Season

Autumn, although the most radiant portion of the American year, has its drawbacks. The heavy evening dews and morning vapors, and the great disparity in temperature between the night and day, give rise to many painful disturbances of the bowels, such as colic, cholera morbus, diarrhaea and dysentery. The digestive organs are also unfavorably affected by the change of season, and dyspeptics generally suffer most severely during the fall. Derangements of the liver are likewise common, and miasmatic fevers prevail in newly-settled districts and low lying and marshy localities. These unpleasant contingencies of the season are not, however, unavoidable. By strengthening, toning and regulating the system with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters even the most delicate may escape them. At the expiration of summer all the bodily powers are in a somewhat exhausted state. They require the wholesome stimulation which this genial vegetable invigorant supplies. Under its renovating influence the nervous energy which the willing heat of July and August had kept in abeyance, or partially extinguished, crops out afresh; the flaccid muscles recover their elasticity; the appetite takes a sharper edge; the processes of digestion and assimilation become more rapid and perfect; the spirits rise and the whole organization acquires its maximum of activity and resistant power. Even persons of comparatively feeble constitutions, when thus fortified against the perils of the season, will have little cause to fear a visitation from any of the disorders to which we have referred. As a protection against miasmatic fevers and all ... engendered by malaria, Hostetter's Bitters may be justly pronounced not only unrivaled but unapproached. Look well to the label and trade mark, as there are many counterfeits and imitations in the market.

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.--1860--X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Uncle Tom's Oldest Son

THE HERO OF MRS BEECHER STOWE'S FAMOUS NOVEL—HIS DESCENDANTS [illegible] INDIANAPOLIS—THE CABIN DESTROYED AFTER THE [illegible] CAMPAIGN—THE [illegible]

INDIANAPOLIS Aug [illegible] It will take from the romance of the story of Uncle Tom's Cabin to know the slender thread of reality upon which it was strung The Uncle Tom who is claimed to be the original of Mrs Stowe's marvelled hero was a resident of Indianapolis for a long time He was not only an emancipated slave living to a patriarchal age but during the time of his servitude was treated with the greatest consideration and kindness by his master

His master was the Hon Thomas Noble of Virginia, the late Gov Noble's father At his death, by a special clause of his will Uncle Tom was emancipated When it came to a partition of the estate Gov Noble in the kindness of his heart took Uncle Tom's wife for his share gave her to her husband and moved them both out to Indianapolis where he settled them in a cabin on his farm The site is the corner of Noble and Market streets

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN

There is nothing left of the old home but the fence the cabin was used as an electioneering dodge in the Fremont campaign, being conspicuously marked Uncle Tom's Cabin mounted on a wagon and transported through the streets in political processions During the war Mr Winston Noble, a son of the late Governor, received a great many letters from parties in Virginia, New England and elsewhere, who desired for love or money a chip, sliver, or splinter of the precious old cabin, but no vestige unless I except the fence remains It was probably burnt as firewood when thrown aside upon Fremont's defeat The original fence is not standing of course but the one in use was built of some weather boarding of the cabin For the information of relic-hunters and the public, generally, I will state that there are objects of interest remaining of paramount value to slivers blocks, chinking, and daubing of the old cabin.

The descendants of Uncle Tom, his veritable flesh and blood, are yet living, They reside in this city, and were it not for the kindness of Winston Noble and his wife would be in a suffering condition To get to the residence of Uncle Tom's oldest son, Moses McGruder, it is necessary to strike west on Michigan street, to what is called Douglas street His house is a tumble-down frame tenement on the corner of Michigan and Douglas streets It is composed of a single room, with a loft above the entrance, the only window being on Douglas street

Moses McGruder was dressed in a much worn suit of black According to his statement he was born on the 2d of October, 1771, one hundred years ago He seemed intelligent and spoke more than ordinarily good English

"I was a man grown," he said, "when we whipped Great Britain I was in the South when Gen Jackson sent all the colored people home before he fought the battle of New Orleans In the last battle the colored folks were in the front, bless the Lord—the last battle for freedom and liberty"

"How old was your father, Uncle Tom when he died?" I asked

"My father was one hundred and sixteen years old He died seventeen years ago last February, an' hadn't a grey hair in his head Nor I ain't many," he added, lifting his hat and showing a heavy shock of hair The action also exposed to view a round well shaped head—the forehead being broad and high The nose and face generally had a depressed look, as if flattened with age His complexion was genuine African, and his hands were a curiosity The nails had hardened and grown to a great length, resembling the claws of an animal

"Are you like your father?" I continued

"[illegible]," replied Louisa, from the soapsuds "Jus' as like as two peas I took care of father—that's Uncle Tom—until he died—jus'—as I take care of him now—but he was an ole man"—laughing to herself "We had a chair fixed on rollers for him, so that a chile could move him out doors—in the sun—jus like M as there"

She [illegible] casually how many of her family she had nursed through old age and helpless [illegible] unto death, but instead of uttering complaints at her lot, seemed rather to be thankful for being spared to the loving task

SEVENTEEN TIMES SOLD A SLAVE

Here Moses resumed his story He was sold as a slave seventeen times "When I was fifty years old I bought my own body I paid $1,200 for my own body," speaking in a tone of exultation "When I fus' come here the chil'en would all cry and run away when they saw me. It made me feel bad They had heard 'bout the devil, and when they saw me they thought he had come I was sold over and over again seventeen times, and hired out to every devilish man besides, but I never had a lick from my father He said to me, 'Now, Moses my son, always mind your own business, and let other people tend to their own business, and you will never get into trouble,' I found that was so but I had plenty of tribulation. You see, when my old master died I was left to the girls, and they disputed about who should have me I told them to cut me up in four quarters, that would settle which one I belonged to, each one could take a piece. 'No you old fool, you!' they said, 'then you wouldn't do any good.' Now it was different with my father He was freed by our master, then my master's son freed my mother and brought them to this State. My father was always kindly treated by Col Noble, and now his son takes care of us, he pays our rent Those Nobles were God's gentlemen

"How many were you in family—Uncle Tom's children I mean?"

"My father was married more than once By my mother he had twenty-four children

The assertion was so startling that I asked him to enumerate the children, which he proceeded to do, assisted by Louisa who suspended operations at the washtub "Don't speak too fast," she said seeing that I was noting it down

He began, "There's Moses (that's one) one, Aaron's two, Isaac is three Edmund is four, Wesley five, Jerry six Them's the boys.

"Now for the girls Lucy was one, Minty two, Pamelia three, Maria four, Mary five Lavina six, Louisa seven

"Six boys and seven girls, I remarked "That's not twenty-four That's thirteen

"Rest born dead," he answered sententiously"

"Any twins?"

"Two sets of them They were born dead too There was twenty four of us in all counting the dead ones"

SPOILED THE YOKE

Here Moses laughed, and said I was thinking of that old nigga bout here in early day, whose wife had twins, and one night he overlaid one of them—and he said he didn't mind so much, but it spoiled the yoke

"How many of your family are left? I resumed

"There's me, old Moses—I had a wife and children, but they're all gone—there's me and there's Louise, the oldest and the youngest of the McGruder stock The rest are dead"

"I nursed them all till they died Aunt Louisa repeated, 'and I'll take care of you brother," wiping her eyes

"We have a sister living in Canada, he thought Moses, "she's many years younger than me, but she looks older, don't she Louisa?"

Louisa nodded assent, and he settled back in his chair.

"Did Mrs Stowe ever talk with Uncle Tom?" I asked.

"Yes a good deal She visited her brother Henry Ward Beecher, her I mind I used to wash for Mrs. Beecher Many's the extra quarter she has slipped into my hand unbeknown to him Not that he wasn't kind, too He sometimes gin me a quarter unbeknown to her They was not rich folks then They was both mighty good to us As for that story-book she wrote, she did not tell half the truth, only she might have said the bad hearts ain't all on t'other side the river They are jus as bad here"

"Don't talk to this chile," said an old woman who had slipped in during our conversation "I was a slave in Kentucky I was hired out to a preacher, who hired women to work because he got them for less wages than men He hired seven of us and every Sunday morning he would strip and flog us if he did not abuse us worse Every one of us had a chile by him and then he would make us go to church and take love feast with us the [illegible] sinner He's gone to torment long ago

SLAVE BLOCK YARNS

Aunt Louisa shut her mouth with Tut, tut we don't want any your slave block yarns

[It seems that in the slave market the unhappy wretches would interchange experiences]

The slave block and hammer ain't no more thank God

Uncle Moses caught the tenor of their conversation and shouted Thank God Bless the Lord, several times Above his shouts was heard the cry of the least child to whom Louisa stooped down and kindly asked

What's the matter

I want suthin to eat

Then don't cry putting a couple of corn cakes in its hand

The child's hunger admonished us of the dinner hour and we took our leave Not without kind words from them and a lesson of patience cheerfulness and faith in their lives which sank deeply in my heart

We took a book store on our route home and asked for Uncle Tom's Cabin

Just out was the reply it sells all the time right along

I recalled to mind that half a million copies were sold within a year of publication and that it was translated into a confusion of tongues then I narrowed down its readers to those within the range of my pen and beg leave to call their attention from imaginary pain and sorrow to old age weak from hunger and shivering with cold My pen is pointed at the real needy crying for help while fictitious miseries are wept over Would it not be practical sympathy for each reader and admirer of Uncle Tom's Cabin to give a little something toward lifting the children of Uncle Tom above want?

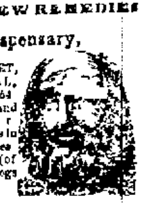
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhœa Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe and has resumed practice at his Dispensary 623 Kearny street corner of Commercial San Francisco where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR GIBBON, a physician who has made this disease a especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emission the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combated by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON's responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case symptoms, length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country, with full and plain directions By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co. a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended patients letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
